Families I: Christian Response to Racial Reconciliation - C204

We are all grateful to live in the post-Civil Rights era, but we still hear and see the evidence of racism in our world. What is the Christian response to a world that appears to be ripping itself apart? This four-week study does not provide all the answers, but it offers a starting point for people to become part of the conversation that can lead towards a better tomorrow. This course will be recorded and offered again.

Group Leader: Cliff Mullen
